

Are You Getting Divorced?

Can't Afford an Attorney?

Need Some Help Filling Out the Paperwork?

The Scott County Law Library is trying a new pilot program to assist with divorce paperwork. Are you one of those people that feel you can't afford an attorney, but do not qualify for legal aid? Many self-represented litigants are going to court unprepared and with incomplete or incorrect paperwork. This program might be able to help.

The Scott County Law Library is partnering with the Minnesota Justice Foundation, the Minnesota Bar Association, local volunteer attorneys and students from Hamline, William Mitchell, St Thomas and the University of Minnesota Law Schools to offer assistance with filling out divorce paperwork. This program gives law students practical, hands-on experience working with clients under the supervision of practicing attorneys. This free program will be available to anyone who falls below 300% of the 2011 Federal Poverty Guidelines. (See below)

Participants are asked to fill out a client intake form and preregister for the clinic. The clinic is offered the Fourth Saturday of the month, 9:00am-12:00pm at the Scott County Government Center.
